IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.44573 of 2008
BIJO DAS @ BIZO DAS @ VIJAY DAS & SANJAY DAS
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR & ANR
----

2. 24.11.2008 Heard Sri Partha Sarthy, Advocate for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The two petitioners are the father and younger brother of the husband of the complainant who alleged that she was being illtreated and tortured so much so, as to be beaten up and expelled from the matrimonial home merely for the reason that she could not satisfy the demand of the petitioners and other accused persons of bringing Rs.1,00000/- in cash so as to bolstering up there business.

The contention is that the lady filed a complaint before the State Women Commission but did not level any such allegation as she made in the petition of complaint. The next contention was that the father of the lady served a notice through an Advocate upon the petitioner Bijo Das @ Bizo Das @ Vijay Das, the father of the husband, but that notice could not bear any allegation of illtreatment, torture or demand of Rs.1,00000/- in cash. It is further contended that the reason is best known to the lady does not want indeed to live with the husband and has filed a false case at the behest of the father and others.
